The dramatic story of Captain William Bligh, Fletcher Christian and history's most famous mutiny, brought to life by Peter FitzSimons, Australia's storyteller.

MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY

Peter FitzSimons

Hardback 9780733634116 | $49.99

Ebook 9780733634123 | $19.99

Hachette Australia

Commissioned by the Royal Navy to collect breadfruit plants from Tahiti and take them to the West Indies, the Bounty's crew found themselves in a tropical paradise. Five months later, they did not want to leave. Under the leadership of Fletcher Christian most of the crew mutinied soon after sailing from Tahiti, setting Captain William Bligh and 18 loyal crewmen adrift in a small open boat. In one of history's great feats of seamanship, Bligh navigated this tiny vessel for 3618 nautical miles to Timor.

The mutineers sailed back to Tahiti, where most remained and were later tried for mutiny. But Christian, along with eight fellow mutineers, sailed off into the unknown, eventually discovering the isolated Pitcairn Island and settling there.

This astonishing story is historical adventure at its very best – a sprawling, dramatic tale of intrigue, bravery and sheer boldness.

J.K. Rowling's five-film Fantastic Beasts adventure series continues with the original screenplay for Fantastic Beasts: The Crimes of Grindelwald.

FANTASTIC BEASTS: THE CRIMES OF GRINDELWALD

J.K. Rowling

Hardback 9781408711705 | $39.99

Little, Brown

At the end of Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them, the powerful Dark wizard Gellert Grindelwald was captured in New York with the help of Newt Scamander. Making good on his threat, Grindelwald escapes custody and sets about gathering followers, most unsuspecting of his true agenda: to raise pure-blood wizards up to rule over all non-magical beings.

In an effort to thwart Grindelwald's plans, Albus Dumbledore enlists Newt, his former Hogwarts student, to help once again—unaware of the dangers that lie ahead. Lines are drawn as love and loyalty are tested, even among the truest friends and family.

The second original screenplay from J.K. Rowling, illustrated with stunning line art from MinaLima, expands on earlier events that helped shaped the wizarding world, with some surprising nods to the Harry Potter stories that will delight fans of both the books and films.

J.K. ROWLING is the author of the record-breaking, multi-award-winning Harry Potter novels. The series has sold over 500 million copies, been translated into over 80 languages, and made into eight blockbuster films.

Trade Paperback 9781473217867 | $29.99

Ebook 9781473217881 | $14.99

Gollancz

Spensa's world has been under attack for hundreds of years. An alien race called the Krell leads onslaught after onslaught from the sky in a never-ending campaign to destroy humankind. Humanity's only defense is to take to their ships and fight the enemy in the skies. Pilots have become the heroes of what's left of the human race.

Spensa has always dreamed of being one of them; of soaring above Earth and proving her bravery. But her fate is intertwined with her father's - a pilot who was killed years ago when he abruptly deserted his team, placing Spensa's chances of attending flight school somewhere between slim and none.

No one will let Spensa forget what her father did, but she is still determined to fly. And the Krell just made that a possibility. They've doubled their fleet, making Spensa's world twice as dangerous... but their desperation to survive might just take her skyward...

BRANDON SANDERSON has written, amongst others, the Mistborn books, and began the internationally bestselling Stormlight Archive. He was also chosen by Robert Jordan's family to complete Jordan's Wheel of Time Sequence.

From Brandon Sanderson, the No.1 New York Times bestselling author, comes the first book in an epic new series about a girl who dreams of becoming a pilot in a world at war for humanity's future.

Emotional Labor, Women, and the Way Forward

FED UP

Gemma Hartley

Trade Paperback 9781473687462 | $29.99

Ebook 9781473687455 | $14.99

Yellow Kite

Gemma Hartley wrote an article in Harper's Bazaar in September 2017 called 'Women Aren't Nags - We're Just Fed Up', which instantly went viral. The piece, and this book, is about 'emotional labour', i.e. the unpaid, often unnoticed, work done by women that goes into keeping everyone comfortable and happy.

Fed Up tackles the hard-hitting issues surrounding emotional labour: the historical underpinnings and roots in feminism, the benefits and burdens of this kind of effort, and the specific contexts where emotional labour plays a major but undervalued role, including relationships, work, sex, parenting, politics and self-care.

Dubbed as the next feminist frontier, emotional labour couldn't be more relevant to these times we're living in. Fed Up is a must-read for those who want to harness the power of emotional labour and create a more connected, equal world.

GEMMA HARTLEY is a freelance journalist who received her BA in English Writing from the University of Nevada, Reno. Her work has been published in Glamour, the Washington Post, Harper's Bazaar, Women's Health, and the Huffington Post among many others.

A groundbreaking exploration of feminism's most buzzy topic.

A memoir in essays by Abbi Jacobson, the co-creator and co-star of hit comedy series Broad City.

I MIGHT REGRET THIS

Abbi Jacobson

Trade Paperback 9780349010878 | $32.99

Ebook 9780349010854 | $14.99

Virago

When Abbi Jacobson announced to friends and acquaintances that she planned to drive across the country alone, she was met with lots of questions and opinions: why wasn't she going with friends? Wouldn't it be incredibly lonely? The North route is better! Was it safe for a woman? The Southern route is the way to go! You should bring mace! And a common one . . . why? But Abbi had always found comfort in solitude, and needed space to step back and hit the reset button.

As she spent time in each city and town on her way to Los Angeles, she mulled over the big questions: What do I really want? What is the worst possible scenario in which I could run into my ex? How has the decision to wear my shirts tucked in been pivotal in my adulthood?

In this collection of anecdotes, observations and reflections, readers will feel like they're in the passenger seat on a fun and, ultimately, inspiring journey.

ABBI JACOBSON is an American comedian, writer, actress and illustrator. She is best known as the Series Creator, Executive Producer and star of the critically acclaimed Comedy Central series, Broad City.

THE LITTLE BOOK OF WONDER

Bernadette Russell

Trade Paperback 9781409183013 | $16.99
Ebook 9781409183020 | $9.99 | Orion Spring

When was the last time you felt 'wonder'? The feeling of amazement and admiration, caused by something beautiful, remarkable, or unfamiliar is one that, as children, we experienced often. But as adults we have grown tired and cynical and spend more time looking down at our phones than looking up at the sky. We no longer experience the power of awe nor its proven benefits.

The Little Book of Wonder encourages you to be creative, feel curious and wonder about the world around us.

Eric Clapton is acknowledged as rock's greatest virtuoso, the unrivalled master of its most essential tool, the solid-body electric guitar.

No life has been more rock 'n' roll than Clapton's in his epic consumption of drugs and alcohol, or his insatiable appetite for expensive cars, clothes, and women.

With the benefit of unrestricted access to family members, close friends and fellow musicians, and his encyclopedic knowledge of Clapton's life, Philip Norman has written the definitive portrait of the insecure, often pain-racked man.

PHILIP NORMAN joined the Sunday Times at 22, soon gaining a reputation as Atticus columnist and for his profiles of figures as diverse as Elizabeth Taylor, Little Richard and Colonel Gaddafi.

Peter Conradi and Mark Logue

Trade Paperback 9781782065975 | $32.99
Ebook 9781782065982 | $14.99 | Quercus

The broadcast that George VI made on the outbreak of war in September 1939 was the product of years of hard work with Lionel Logue, his iconoclastic Australian-born speech therapist. Yet the relationship between the two men did not end there. Far from it: in the years that followed, Logue was to play an even more important role at the monarch's side.

The King's War follows this relationship through the dark days of Dunkirk and the drama of D-Day to eventual victory in 1945 - and beyond.

PETER CONRADI is an author and journalist. He works for the Sunday Times.

MARK LOGUE is the grandson of Lionel Logue. He is a filmmaker and the custodian of the Logue Archive.

Ebook 9781473691544 | $14.99 | Hodder & Stoughton

Castle Rock is a small town, where word gets around quickly. That's why Scott Carey wants to confide only in his friend, Doctor Bob Ellis, about his strange condition: he's losing weight without getting thinner, and the scales register the same when he is in his clothes or out of them, however heavy they are.

As the town prepares for its annual Thanksgiving 12k run, unlikely alliances form and the mystery of Scott's affliction brings out the best in people who have indulged the worst in themselves and others.

STEPHEN KING is the author of more than 50 books, all of them worldwide bestsellers. His recent work includes Sleeping Beauties. Many of King's books have been turned into celebrated films, television series' and streamed events including The Shawshank Redemption, Gerald's Game and It.

Ebook 9781473692213 | $11.99

Hodder & Stoughton

Each year, eight beautiful girls are chosen as Paper Girls to serve the king. It's the highest honour they could hope for . . . and the most demeaning. This year, there's a ninth. And instead of paper, she's made of fire.

Over weeks of training in the opulent but oppressive palace, Lei, a member of the persecuted paper caste, and eight other girls learn the skills and charm that befit a king's consort. There, Lei does the unthinkable - she falls in love. Her forbidden romance becomes enmeshed with an explosive plot that threatens her world's entire way of life. Lei, still the wide-eyed country girl at heart, must decide how far she's willing to go for justice and revenge.

NATASHA NGAN is part young-adult author, part yoga teacher, part habitual nap-taker. She studied Geography at the University of Cambridge and later worked as a fashion blogger, social media consultant and freelance writer. Natasha recently moved to Paris, where she likes to imagine she drifts stylishly from brasserie to brasserie, notepad in one hand and wine glass in the other. In reality, she mostly spends her time lost on the metro and offending locals with her French.

Howard Calvert and Claudia Boldt

Hardback 9781444939644 | $24.99

Ebook 9781444939668 | $21.99

Hodder Children's Books

Tommy Fox has a box – a box full of frogs. And when they all jump out at school, that's when the fun begins! There is chaos in the classroom and hijinks in the hall. Can Tommy get the frogs back in the box?

As a child, HOWARD CALVERT was a big Richard Scarry fan, and still considers Lowly Worm a close confidante. He now writes his own children's books, mainly while on the train, and in 2015 was runner-up in the Greenhouse Funny Prize.

CLAUDIA BOLDT attended the Glasgow School of Art, and then Kingston University, London, where she graduated with her Masters in Illustration in 2007. Claudia was a winner of the Booktrust Best New Illustrators Award.

SANTA BRUCE

Ryan T. Higgins

Hardback 9781484782903 | $32.99

Disney-Hyperion

Bruce is a lot of things. He is a bear. He is a grump. He is a pretty decent cook. And he is a mother.

One thing Bruce is not?

Santa Claus.

But that doesn't stop the whole forest from lining up to give him their Christmas wishes when he becomes the victim of mistaken identity – again.

Award-winning author-illustrator Ryan T. Higgins delivers another hilarious story about this bear who just can't catch a break.

RYAN T. HIGGINS is an author-illustrator residing in Southern Maine. He has wanted to be a cartoonist since as far back as he can remember. Ryan's first picture book, Wilfred, was named a 2013 Wanda Gág Read Aloud Honor Book.

WAR IS OVER

David Almond and David Litchfield

Hardback 9781444946574 | $26.99

Hodder Children's Books

John's an ordinary Tyneside lad and he's desperate for peace. His dad is fighting in the trenches and his mam works in the town's munitions factory. John meets a German boy, Jan, who is just like himself; they play war games in the woods beyond the town, and see the ugliness of weapons contrasting with the beauty of the world around them.

John dreams of a better, more beautiful world. His dreams will speak to all of us, and his questions will resonate with children of today.

DAVID ALMOND is the author of Skellig, My Name is Mina, Counting Stars, The Savage, Island, A Song for Ella Grey and The Colour of the Sun.

DAVID LITCHFIELD's first picture book, The Bear and the Piano, won the Waterstones Children's Book Prize.
