MONASH'S MASTERPIECE

Peter FitzSimons

Trade Paperback 9780733640087 | $35.00

Ebook 9780733640094 | $16.99

Hachette Australia

The Battle of Le Hamel on 4 July 1918 was an Allied triumph. A largely Australian force, commanded by Sir John Monash, fought what has been described as the first modern battle.

Monash planned every detail meticulously, with nothing left to chance. Integrated use of tanks, planes, infantry, wireless (and even carrier pigeons!) was the basis: everyone used the same maps, with updated versions delivered by motorbike despatch riders to senior commanders. Each infantry battalion was allocated to a tank group, and they advanced together. Supplies and ammunition were dropped as needed from planes. The losses were relatively few.

Monash planned for the battle to last for 90 minutes – in the end it went for 93. What happened in those minutes changed the way the British fought battles, and the tactics and strategies used by the Allies.

PETER FITZSIMONS is Australia's bestselling non-fiction writer, and the author of a number of highly successful books, including Kokoda, Ned Kelly and Gallipoli, as well as biographies of such notable Australians as Sir Douglas Mawson, Nancy Wake and Nick Farr-Jones. His passion is to tell Australian stories, our own stories: of great men and women, of stirring events in our history.

SIX TUDOR QUEENS: JANE SEYMOUR, THE HAUNTED QUEEN

Alison Weir

Trade Paperback 9781472227683 | $29.99

Ebook 9781472227690 | $16.99 | Headline

Eleven days after the death of Anne Boleyn, Jane is dressing for her wedding to the King. She has witnessed firsthand how courtly play can quickly turn to danger and knows she must bear a son... or face ruin. This new queen must therefore step out from the shadows cast by Katherine and Anne – in doing so, can she expose a gentler side to the brutal King?

Acclaimed, bestselling historian Alison Weir draws on new research for her captivating novel, which paints a compelling portrait of Jane and casts fresh light on both traditional and modern perceptions of her. Jane was driven by the strength of her faith and a belief that she might do some good in a wicked world.

The third stunning novel in the Six Tudor Queens series by beloved historian Alison Weir

ALISON WEIR is the top-selling female historian in the United Kingdom, and has sold over 2.7 million books worldwide. She has published eighteen history books, including Elizabeth the Queen, Eleanor of Aquitaine, The Lady in the Tower and Elizabeth of York, and seven historical novels. Her latest biography is Queens of the Conquest, and her latest novel is Anne Boleyn: A King's Obsession, the second in her Six Tudor Queens series.

THE PERFECT MOTHER

Aimee Molloy

Trade Paperback 9780751570335 | $29.99

Ebook 9780751570328 | $16.99 | Sphere

We all want different things. Francie wants to be the perfect mother. Nell wants to escape the past. Collette wants to spend more time with her family. All Winnie wants is to have her baby back.

When Nell suggests a night out in Brooklyn to her new mums club, the others jump at the chance. But the evening takes a tragic turn when single mother Winnie learns that her six-week-old son Midas has been kidnapped.

As the investigation hits a dead end, Nell, Collette and Francie make it their mission to succeed where the police are failing and bring baby Midas home. But as Winnie and those around her come under scrutiny from the media, damaging secrets come to light and friendships are pushed to the limit.

AIMEE MOLLOY is the author of the New York Times non-fiction bestseller However Long the Night, as well as the co-author of several other books, including Rosewater, which was made into a movie by Jon Stewart. Aimee lives in Brooklyn with her family.

Alison Belsham

Trade Paperback 9781409175124 | $29.99

Ebook 9781409175148 | $16.99 | Trapeze

A policeman on his first murder case.

A tattoo artist with a deadly secret.

And a twisted serial killer sharpening his blades to kill again.

When Brighton tattoo artist Marni Mullins discovers a flayed body, newly-promoted DI Francis Sullivan needs her help. There's a serial killer at large, slicing tattoos from his victims' bodies while they're still alive. Marni knows the tattooing world like the back of her hand, but has her own reasons to distrust the police. So when she identifies the killer's next target, will she tell Sullivan or go after the Tattoo Thief alone?

ALISON BELSHAM initially started writing with the ambition of becoming a screenwriter, and in 2000 was commended for her visual storytelling in the Orange Prize for Screenwriting. In 2001 she was shortlisted in a BBC Drama Writer competition. Life and children intervened but, switching to fiction, in 2009 her novel Domino was selected for the prestigious Adventures in Fiction mentoring scheme. In 2016 she pitched her first crime novel, The Tattoo Thief, at the Pitch Perfect event at the Bloody Scotland Crime Writing Festival and was judged the winner.

THE LIDO

Libby Page

Trade Paperback 9781409175216 | $29.99

Ebook 9781409175230 | $16.99 | Orion

Rosemary has lived in Brixton all her life. But now everything she knows is changing — the library where she used to work has closed, the family fruit and veg shop has become a trendy bar, and her beloved husband George is gone.

Kate has just moved and feels alone in a city that is too big for her. She's at the bottom rung of her career as a journalist on a local paper, and is determined to make something of it. So when the local lido is threatened with closure, Kate knows this story could be her chance to shine. And Rosemary knows it is the end of everything for her.

Together they are determined to make a stand, to show that the pool is more than just a place to swim — it is the heart of the community. Together they will show the importance of friendship, the value of community, and how ordinary people can protect the things they love.

LIBBY PAGE wrote The Lido while working in marketing and moonlighting as a writer. Libby lives in London where she enjoys finding new swimming spots and pockets of community within the city.

A SHOUT IN THE RUINS

Kevin Powers

Trade Paperback 9781473667785 | $29.99

Ebook 9781473667792 | $16.99 | Sceptre

Following his hugely celebrated debut novel, The Yellow Birds, Kevin Powers returns to the battlefield and its aftermath, this time in his native Virginia, just before, during and ninety years after the Civil War. The novel pinpoints with unerring emotional depth the nature of random violence, the necessity of love and compassion, and the fragility and preciousness of life.

It will endure as a stunning novel about what we leave behind, what a life is worth, what is said and unsaid, and the fact that ultimately what will survive of us is love.

KEVIN POWERS was born and raised in Richmond, Virginia. A former soldier who served with the US army in Iraq in 2004-05, he studied English at Virginia Commonwealth University and received an MFA in Poetry from the Michener Center for Writers at the University of Texas at Austin. His debut novel, The Yellow Birds, won the Guardian First book award, the Hemingway Foundation/PEN Award, and was a finalist for the National Book Award. His first collection of poetry, Letter Composed During a Lull in the Fighting, was published in 2014.

An unforgettable novel – a riveting, heart-wrenching story of injustice and racism in 1940s Louisiana that is as powerful and profound as it is timely

THE MERCY SEAT

Elizabeth H. Winthrop

Trade Paperback 9781473672505 | $29.99
Ebook 9781473672482 | $16.99 | Sceptre

As the sun begins to set over Louisiana one October day in 1943, a young black man faces the final hours of his life: at midnight, eighteen-year-old Willie Jones will be executed by electric chair for raping a white girl – a crime some believe he did not commit.

In a tale taut with tension, events unfold from the perspectives of nine people involved. They include Willie himself, who knows what really happened, and his father, desperately trying to reach the jail to see his son one last time; the prosecuting lawyer, forced to seek the death penalty against his convictions, and his wife, who believes Willie is innocent; the priest who has become a friend to Willie; and a mother whose only son is fighting in the Pacific, bent on befriending her black neighbours in defiance of her husband.

In this exceptionally powerful novel, Elizabeth H. Winthrop explores matters of justice, racism and the death penalty in a fresh, subtle and profoundly affecting way.

ELIZABETH H. WINTHROP's first novel, Fireworks, was published by Sceptre in 2006, her second, December, was a Richard and Judy Book Club pick for 2009, and her third, The Why of Things, was published in 2013.

HUMAN ERRORS

Nathan H. Lents

Trade Paperback 9781474608343 | $29.99

Ebook 9781474608367 | $16.99 | W&N

We like to think of ourselves as highly evolved creatures. But if we are supposedly evolution's greatest creation, why do we have such bad knees? Why do we catch colds so often – two hundred times more often than a dog? And are we really supposed to swallow and breathe through the same narrow tube? Surely there's been some kind of mistake.

As professor of biology Nathan H. Lents explains in Human Errors, our evolutionary history is nothing if not a litany of mistakes, each more entertaining and enlightening than the last.

NATHAN H. LENTS is a professor of biology at John Jay College at CUNY, and is the author of one previous academic book. He has appeared as a scientific expert on The Today Show, National Public Radio and many other media outlets.

MAN FAST

Natasha Scripture

Trade Paperback 9780349412467 | $32.99

Ebook 9780349412450 | $16.99 | Piatkus

'Any cute boys?' Natasha Scripture's 64-year-old Indian mother wants to know. Once again, Natasha finds herself explaining that it is hard to find a husband while serving as a relief worker in refugee camps, war zones and natural disaster areas.

Scripture's Man Fast takes her from meditating in an Ayurvedic ashram in southern India to toiling on a vineyard on Mount Etna to going on a solo-safari in a game reserve in southern Tanzania. Her book is an antidote to a culture that prizes finding the right man and settling down into a conventional pattern over taking the time to know, live and love your true self.

NATASHA SCRIPTURE is a writer and United Nations spokesperson based in New York. Natasha has a Masters degree in Gender and Development Studies from the London School of Economics.

ASK A MANAGER

Alison Green

Trade Paperback 9780349419473 | $32.99

Ebook 9780349419459 | $11.99 | Piatkus

Ten years of writing a workplace advice column have taught Green that people tend to avoid difficult conversations in the office because we simply don't know what to say.

In this witty and practical guide, Green tackles 200 of those delicate discussions that you need to have, but might not be sure how to begin — and arms you with the wording to do it. Along the way, she shares some of the most outlandish and hilarious letters she's received from readers over the years — from an employee who placed a black magic 'curse' on her coworkers, to a boss who repeatedly stole an employee's lunch.

ALISON GREEN writes the workplace advice column Ask a Boss for New York Magazine, and answers readers' questions daily on her blog, Ask a Manager, which is syndicated by Inc., Time, Money Magazine, and in multiple newspapers nationwide.
